

CLINICAL DECISION SUPPORT

CardioAssist

Predicted myocardial infarction risk, explained — for clinicians and care coordinators

End-to-end workflow

From patient intake to clinician action

CardioAssist

Screening queue · 12 pending

RC

Robert Chen

68 · M

71%

Maria Perez

54 · F

38%

James Tran

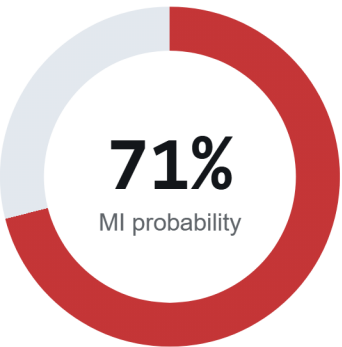

41 · M

9%

Robert Chen

68 / M · MRN 384021 · Screened Jul 9, 2026

Add to care plan

HIGH RISK

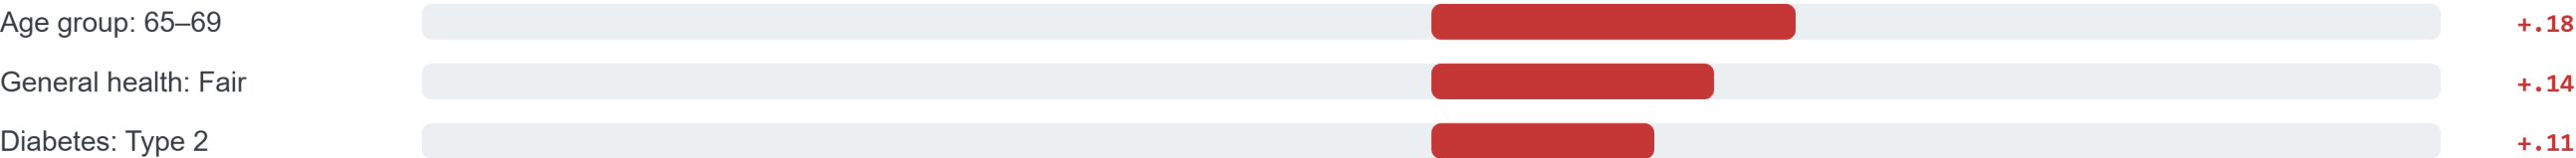

Predicted risk is well above the population base rate (9.4%). Strongest drivers: age group, general health status, and Type 2 diabetes.

RECOMMENDED ACTION

Refer to cardiology within 2 weeks. Order lipid panel + ECG; discuss statin therapy and smoking cessation.

Start referral

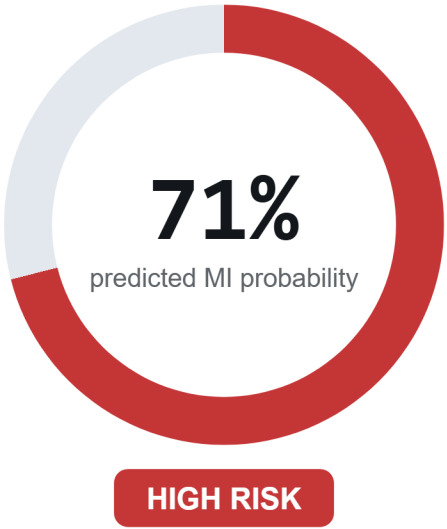

Contributing factors

CARDIOASSIST SCREENING REPORT

Robert Chen

68 / M · MRN 384021 · Screened Jul 9, 2026

vs. population base rate of 9.4%

RECOMMENDED ACTION

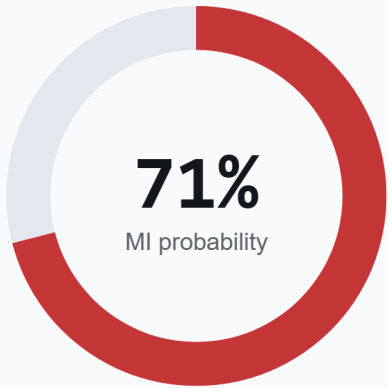

Refer to cardiology within 2 weeks. Order lipid panel + ECG; discuss statin therapy and smoking cessation.

What's driving this prediction

DEMOGRAPHIC	Age group 65–69	+0.18 ↑
CLINICAL	General health rated Fair	+0.14 ↑
CLINICAL	Diabetes (Type 2)	+0.11 ↑

Robert Chen
68 / M · MRN 384021

HIGH RISK

VITALS ON FILE

General health	Fair
Diabetes	Type 2
Stroke history	None

Overview

Contributing factors

Recommended care

FEATURE	PATIENT VALUE	IMPACT
Age group	65–69	+0.18
General health	Fair	+0.14
Diabetes	Type 2	+0.11
Stroke history	None reported	−0.09

Random Forest model · test AUC 0.83 · recall 0.80